

I am so lucky to live in a town with two Public Broadcasting stations. I think there is way too much monopoly on commercial stations especially the ones the teens listen to. I can never find much diversity except on PBS or the classical music stations. Where is all the news? Please to don sell out or freedom of press by allowing the mega stations to own everything.